R U S E

CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

5141, boulevard Saint-Laurent, Montréal (Québec) H2T 1R9
514 948-1717 • consignment@ruseboutique.com

CONSIGNOR INFORMATION

Name: _____ Drop-off date: _____

Phone: _____ Alternate phone: _____

Email: _____

1. PURPOSE OF THIS AGREEMENT

This agreement sets out the terms under which the consignor provides items to RUSE for evaluation and, if selected, for sale on the consignor's behalf.

2. SELECTION AND EVALUATION

RUSE selects items according to its criteria, including their condition, authenticity, style, season and sales potential. Evaluation may take up to 7 business days following receipt of the items.

Once the evaluation is complete, RUSE emails the consignor a list of selected items, including their descriptions, proposed selling prices and consignor percentages. If no items are selected, RUSE also informs the consignor by email.

3. AUTHENTICITY

The consignor declares, to the best of their knowledge, that the items provided to RUSE are authentic and that they are authorized to consign them. RUSE examines items as part of its authentication process. For certain eligible items, once the price has been agreed upon, RUSE may also use Entrupy or specialized third-party companies to support its review.

RUSE may request additional information or documents, such as proof of purchase or a certificate of authenticity. If doubt remains following the review, the item will not be offered for sale.

RUSE generally covers authentication costs. In the rare instances where the consignor may be asked to pay a fee, the amount and applicable terms will be communicated before authentication and their prior consent will be obtained. These terms will explain how the fee is handled if the item remains unsold or the consignor wishes to retrieve it.

4. PRICING AND ACCEPTANCE

RUSE determines proposed selling prices based on factors including the brand, model, original price, resale market value and overall condition of each item.

The consignor has 2 days following receipt of the price list to respond. If no response is received within that period, RUSE will attempt to contact the consignor again before offering the items for sale. If no response is received, the proposed prices will be considered accepted and the selected items may be offered for sale.

5. CONSIGNMENT PERIOD AND SALE

The consignment period is 3 months from acceptance of the proposed prices. When prices are considered accepted in the absence of a response under section 4, the consignment period begins when the 2-day period expires.

RUSE chooses how and where to present and sell items, including in-store, on its website and through social media. Online listing is not guaranteed. At the end of the consignment period, unsold items may be retrieved by the consignor or remain on consignment longer by agreement with RUSE.

6. PRICE REDUCTIONS

If an item remains unsold after 2 months on consignment, RUSE may reduce its selling price by up to 20% of the initial price. The consignor's agreed percentage applies to the selling price after the reduction.

7. YOUR SHARE OF THE SALE

At RUSE, you receive at least 50% of the selling price of each item. A higher share may be offered for certain pieces, including luxury bags and accessories. We evaluate each item individually based on its brand, model, condition, value and demand.

Our goal is to find the right balance between a price that helps your piece sell and an amount that satisfies you. The proposed price and your percentage are shown for each item on the list we send you. Your share is calculated on the selling price before taxes, after any reduction provided for in this agreement.

8. SALES FOLLOW-UP AND PAYMENT

The consignor is responsible for contacting RUSE by email to follow up on sales. The first follow-up may be made 30 days after prices are accepted. Subsequent follow-ups must be spaced at least 30 days after the last follow-up or payment. RUSE provides a sales update within up to 7 business days after receiving the request.

Because of RUSE's return policy and shipping delays, only items sold more than 10 days ago may be processed for payment. Payment method: [ ] Interac e-Transfer [ ] Cheque

9. ITEM LOANS

On rare occasions, RUSE may lend select items on a short-term basis to stylists or other collaborators for creative or editorial projects. These collaborations showcase pieces to a new audience and may help them sell. RUSE assumes responsibility for the items during these loans.

10. RETRIEVAL AND DONATION

The consignor may request the return of unsold items. A notice period of 2 business days is required to allow RUSE to prepare them.

If an item has been authenticated by an external service or prepared for online listing, a withdrawal request received before the item has been offered for sale for at least 2 months may result in a fee of $50 per item. RUSE will inform the consignor if the fee applies before preparing the items for retrieval.

RUSE informs the consignor by email when unselected or unsold items are ready for pickup. Unless otherwise agreed with RUSE, items not retrieved within 30 days of that notice may be donated to a charitable organization. Before donating, RUSE will attempt to contact the consignor to remind them to retrieve the items.

11. ACCEPTANCE

The consignor confirms that they have read and accepted the terms of this agreement.

Name: _____ Signature: _____

Date: _____ RUSE team member: _____