Homemade Ice Cream Sandwiches

What you'll need:

your favorite recipe for chewy cookies, doubled your ice cream of choice sprinkles, chocolate chips, or other topping of choice wax paper

Bake a double batch of cookies, leaving them slightly underdone. Cool them completely. Meanwhile, remove ice cream from freezer and allow to soften a bit. Once cookies are cool, flip over half of them and place a generous scoop of ice cream on the overturned cookie face. Top each scoop with the other half of the cookies. Press the cookies together and scrape off any excess ice cream that escapes from the sides. You have yourself an ice cream sandwich! Roll the exposed ice cream edge in the toppings. To best keep, wrap in wax paper individually and freeze.
