

Greetings!

With so much happening in our country, I hope that we are all taking the time to get outside and enjoy the sunshine and remember what is important and what we can be grateful for. I know there are many struggles that many share and many we face on our own. We have included a link to a powerful essay written by Barbara Brown Taylor that we think might help in these vulnerable times. Also at bottom are our newest books that are recommended by our staff, our priest and our community members. In this newsletter we have also included books that we think your children will enjoy.

Store Hours:
Monday-Friday: 10-4
Saturday :10-2

Curbside pick-up is still available

Shop Our Featured Summer Items

"Top 10" Shirt

Top 10 Reasons for being an Episcopalian, according to Robin Williams

Flip Flops

A summer cool gift as well as a 'must-have' for your next beach trip

Dog Collars

Finely crafted, assorted sizes and proudly displaying the Episcopal Shield

Episcopal Dog Leash

Every good dog in your life deserves a quality handmade leash (in red or blue)

Cap with Episcopal Shield

Adjustable, cotton twill ball cap with distressed look & brass buckle on back strap

'And also with y'all' Bumper Sticker

No car should be without one of these!

Finding God Outside the Church Walls

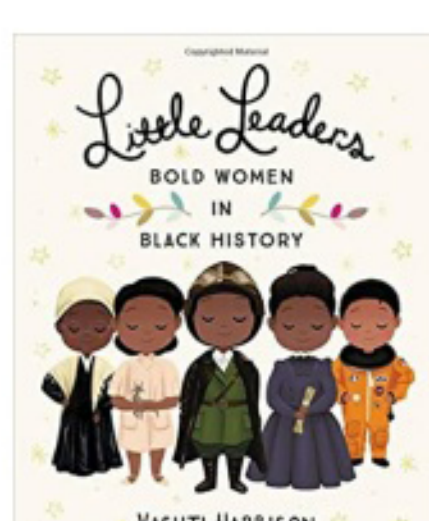

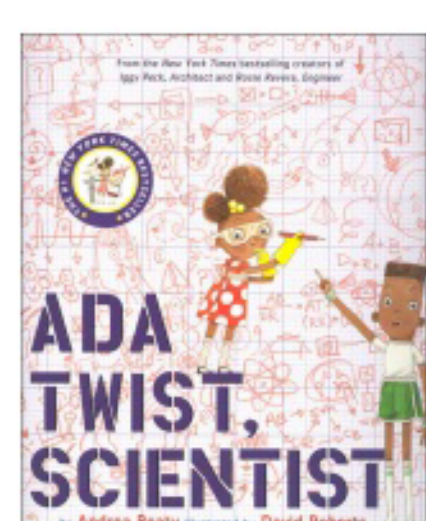

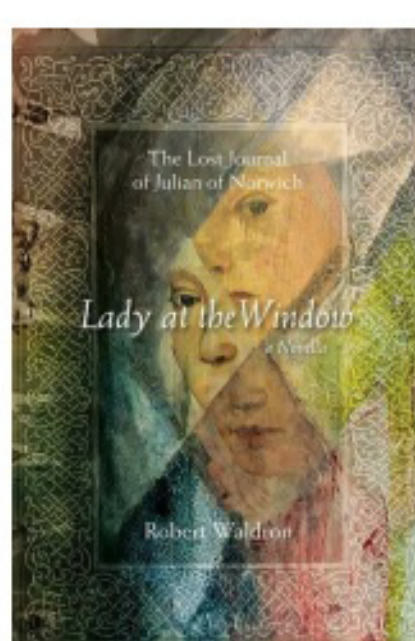

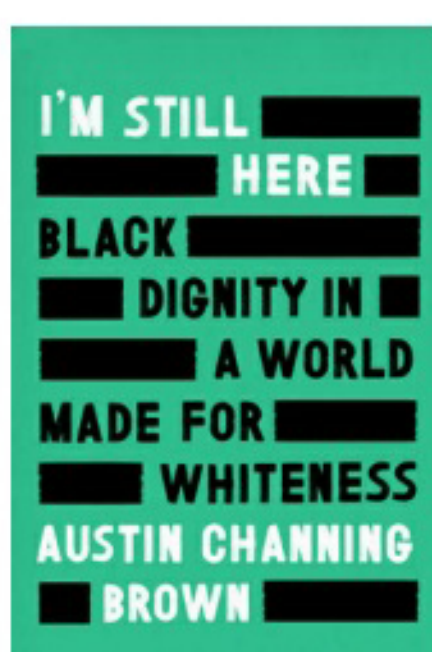

an Essay by Barbara Brown Taylor

The Spirit is God's wild card, played over and over again when old forms fail. During times of turbulence in politics, culture, and religious life, it's tempting to hold tightly to current convictions. Allowing a change of one's mind or heart can be difficult work.

Read Essay

Featured Books

These are our featured books for this month. We hope you enjoy them as much as we did!

Previous Picks

