

Beginner Generalist - Part Time

15-20 hours/week, Saturday availability required.

Looking to get a better first job? There are a lot of tasks at the store which require help from others.

In this position you'll aid in deliveries, building furniture, restocking inventory, and maintaining store appearance. After exposure to the inner workings of the store, this position can lead to a sales or service position.

The best candidates for this position are willing to do whatever it takes and is asked of them during each shift.