

January Beer Club

THE LINEUP

$40

Field House Triple
British Columbia
Style: Hazy IPA
568ml

Field House Brewing is a community-focused craft brewery located in East Abbotsford. Established in 2015, they have certainly built a reputation for producing 'top notch' beers, leaning towards perfection. This latest release makes me think, why not start out the new year with a banger? It's a hazy IPA, clocking in at only 10% abv and packaged in a super tall can. It's the perfect beer to crack and sip slowly or share with a friend.

92 points EricCellar

Superflux
British Columbia
Style: Lager
473ml

Superflux Beer Company is a fantastic brewery nestled between Strathcona and East Vancouver. With this location, they're joining a group of other breweries, that have had beer lovers flocking to this area for a while now. This classic lager is brewed with German malt and hopped with Hallertau Tradition and Saaz hops. It's light and crushable, offering a mix of apple and white grape, with a hint of breadly malts.

82 points EricCellar

Backcountry I Wonder If It Remembers Me
British Columbia
Style: Hazy Pale
473ml

The team behind Backcountry Brewing joined forces in 2015, when they realized they each had a different piece of the puzzle to opening a new brewery. Located in Squamish, they have found a nice groove in BC's craft beer scene. 'I Wonder If It Remembers Me' is a juicy and hazy pale ale, hopped with Citra and Eldorado hops. It offers a fusion of orange zest, grapefruit and guava with a candied-like sweetness.

84 points EricCellar

The Establishment Kool Thing
Alberta
Style: Hazy IPA
473ml

The Establishment is a brewery and taproom located in Calgary's growing Barley Belt brewing district. The team behind this brewery has always had a great passion for beer so we're always on high alert for every release. 'Kool Thing' is everything you've come to expect from their black can hazy series. Simply put, it's a juicy treat, combining a glorious mix of fresh pineapple, peach and blood orange.

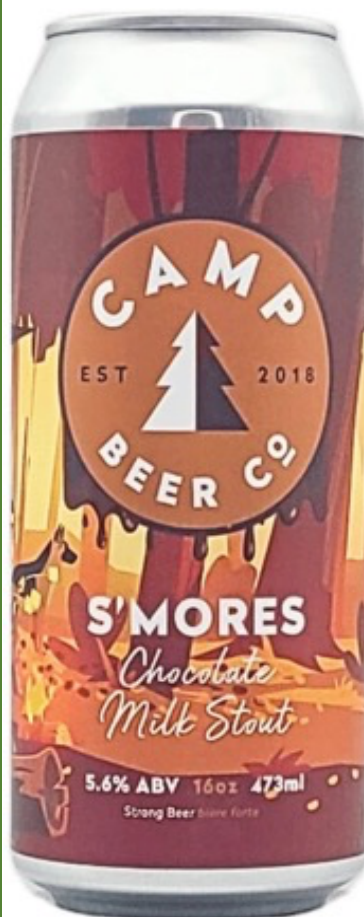

88 points EricCellar

Dieu Du Ciel!
Quebec
Style: West Coast IPA
473ml

Jean Francois Gravel began homebrewing in 1991 and quickly became enamoured by the craft. When he met Stephane Ostiguy during an internship at the Armand-Frappier Institute, they decided to open a microbrewery in Quebec. This beer called 'Dent De Requin' or 'Shark Tooth', is a highly aromatic West Coast IPA. It's tart and tangy showcasing a mingle of citrus, kiwi, mango, passionfruit and orange, with a hint of pine and caramel.

94 points EricCellar

Camp S'Mores
British Columbia
Style: Milk Stout
473ml

Located in the Fraser Vally in southwestern British Columbia, Camp is a community-based brewery and tasting room. It's 100% locally owned, with strong grassroots in the homebrewing community. 'S'Mores' is a delectable and rich stout, that has sweet chocolate, Madagascar vanilla beans and roasted malt added to the brewing process. The idea is to create that ooey and gooey combo of your special campfire treat. Yum!

86 points EricCellar