

October Sampler

ILauri Lume

Abruzzo, Italy

The Abruzzo wine region is located on the east coast of the Adriatic Sea. In terms of white wine production, it's best known for the cooling Trebbiano grape.

Pair with Clam Linguine or Shrimp Salad

Ricca Terra Colour of Calmness

South Australia, Australia

This Rose will certainly bring some feelings of Fall, blending Nero d'Avola, Sangiovese and Graciano. Strawberry and tart cranberry burst from the glass.

Pair with Grilled Salmon or Seared Tuna

La Girouette

Languedoc-Roussillon, France

This Pinot Noir is both concentrated and lightly fresh. It offers a mix of blue and purple fruits, with a hint of cake spices, leafy tea herbs and a mild savouriness.

Pair with your Thanksgiving Dinner!

Bodega Y Vinedo Tinedo Ja!

Castilla-La Mancha, Spain

Made from 100% Tempranillo, this wine is fermented and aged solely in stainless steel tanks. The idea is to emphasize the purity and freshness of this varietal.

Pair with Grilled Drumsticks or Gyoza

Giribaldi Dolcetto d'Alba

Piedmont, Italy

Following in the footsteps of tradition, this family continues their legacy passed on through the years. This Dolcetto wine offers a mix of purple fruits and violets.

Pair with Spaghetti or Pizza Margherita

Chateau Haut-Bicou

Bordeaux, France

Just outside the wine region of Franschhoek, this Chateau is about 200 years old. This wine is a fusion of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc.

Pair with Lamb Burgers or Flank Steak

$154