

gustavo ozuna

For more than 50 years of artistic work, Gustavo Ozuna has made more than 400 exhibitions between collective and individual.

His work is part of several private collections in the United States, Sweden, Italy, Haiti, Canada, France, Israel and Mexico. For all this to write his path would lead to a comprehensive work, which could set up a large catalog, so that only highlight what we keep in mind it's present.

Gustavo Ozuna was born in Santa Ana Sonora; he studied at the academy of fine arts from the university of Sonora and national school of painting and sculpture of fine arts in Mexico City (La Esmeralda).

He was a student of teachers as outstanding as Hector Martinez Arteché, Rosa Castillo, Jose I Ruiz, Ernesto Vasquez Beltran, Lorenzo Guerrero, Rafael Guerrero, Adrian villa Gomez, Benito Meseguer, Waldemar Sjolander, Francisco Zuniga, Armando Amaya, Elizabeth Catletl, among others.

He is currently a master of mural painting in university of Sonora and founder of the gallery studio Ozuna in the historical center of Hermosillo, Sonora.
