

DAVID OZUNA

David Ozuna Huerta was born in Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico where he currently lives and works and is part of a modern generation of Mexican painters who has a graduate degree in fine arts from the University of Sonora 2010.

David's pictorial work is a constant that varies pursuit of mimetic realism to pure structural forms, axes composition exposed, textures and chromaticism of strong contrasts combined with gestural graphics that gradually has created its own language and the foundation of his personality .

It's theme like it's plastic forms, is variable and ranges from portrait practice which has achieved remarkable successes, to the figurative expression formal purposes plasticity and lately some forays into social realism reminiscent of German expressionism.

David has participated in about eighty group exhibitions in the United States, Canada and Mexico and his work is in collections in Germany, Canada, USA, Mexico, Spain, Italy and Argentina.

