OPA! A Tour of Greece with Maggie Harrison, Vintage Wine Distributor

Western Reserve Wines Welcomes you!

OPA! Enjoy amazing wines from Greece today.

Greek wine is renowned for its rich history, dating back over 4,000 years, and its diverse indigenous grape varieties, such as Assyrtiko and Xinomavro. The country's unique terroir, influenced by its mountainous landscape and Mediterranean climate, produces wines with distinctive flavors and exceptional quality.

Assyrtiko Alexakis White $17.99

Today, in Crete, farmers are cultivating the ancient variety Assyrtiko which originated from the island of Santorini. The Alexakis brothers source these grapes from high-elevation vineyards where ancient winepresses have survived since the Bronze Age. The wine is tank-fermented and aged sur lie for three months. - Winemaker Notes

Vidiano Douloufakis-Dafnois White $18.99

Unoaked, dry - This has beautiful purity of fruit, as always, a sense of elegance and a fresh feel. Attractive bouquet of lychee, melon and Conference pear. The finish is long, tasty and delicious. 100% Vidiano made entirely in steel.

Next Week:

Skouras Saint George Red Nemea $18.99

Fermented and macerated in stainless steel, aged in used French barriques for 12 months and a further 6 months in bottle. Blackberries, mulberries, raspberries, ripe strawberries, a touch of aniseed, cinnamon, fine tannins, round and velvety mouth.

Alpha Estate Xinomavro Hedgehog Red $24.99

Bright purple-red color. Complex, typical bouquet of small berries red fruits, leather, and spices, with hints of ripe blackberry. Full mouth, rounded tannins, balanced acidity, and well-integrated wood tones. Long aftertaste with an intense quince aroma.

Skouras Megas Oenos Red $36.99

Blend: 80% Agiorgitiko, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon - Winemaker Notes
92 points - James Suckling "A big and rich wine with lots of fruit, tannins and wood. It's full-bodied and a little austere, but should soften with age. A little old-school with so much wood tannin. But outstanding. Non-filtered."
