bottle home to share tonight!

California wine is renowned for its diverse regions, including Napa Valley and Sonoma County, which produce world-class wines.

The state's Mediterranean climate, fertile soil, and innovative winemaking techniques contribute to its global reputation. Iconic varietals such as Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Zinfandel thrive in California's vineyards.

Ancient Peaks Merlot Santa Margarita Ranch

$19.99

93 Points Tasting Panel "This 100% Merlot is a knockout made with grapes grown on an ancient seabed and aged 17 months in French and American oak. A dusting of cocoa settles atop plum, ripe black cherry, and cinnamon."

The Hess Collection Chardonnay

$12.99

Tropical aromas of grilled pineapple with a hint of star fruit and vanilla. Nicely balanced, Hess Select Chardonnay is medium-bodied with layers of sliced peaches and golden delicious apples, finishing crisp and clean with well-balanced acid.

Bezel Wines Cabernet Sauvignon Paso Robles

$39.99

This California Cab makes friends wherever it goes. Aromas of blackberry, dried herbs and a hint of minerality lead to a plush flavors of ripe black and red fruits, and dark chocolate on the palate. Paso Robles AVA

Tooth & Nail The Fragrant Snare

$26.99

Chardonnay (85%), Chenin Blanc (15%), Viognier (5%) Exhibits open aromas of white flower, baked apple and a spiral of stone fruit and tropical notes. The flavor profile is round with fresh acidity and flavors reminiscent of nectarine, tangelo, green herbs. Mouthfeel is elegant and stony.

Four Vines Zinfandel Biker Paso Robles

$19.99

Bold and daring with a touch of roughness around the edges ... presenting The Biker Zinfandel. Hailing from the west side of Paso Robles, ground zero for top-notch zinfandel, The Biker is full of wild berry and layers of spice. — Winemaker's notes
