Costa di Giulia Bolgheri Bianco DOC 2024

$34.99

An estate cru at the foot of Castagneto Carducci, Costa di Giulia is one of the first white Bolgheri wines produced: since '97, Vermentino has been flanked by Sauvignon blanc for 40% of the final blend. The two varieties are fermented separately. Costa di Giulia embodies Bolgheri's potential for white grapes, giving a wine of great class and longevity.

Castello di Montepó Castello di Montepo JeT Rosé 2024

$29.99

Sangiovese grosso BBS11: 100% | Intense and fragrant

Our Sangiovese grosso "BBS11" produces an intense and fragrant rosé. Harvested from the coolest and best-exposed vineyards, the grapes are meticulously vinified off the skins at low temperatures, resulting in an extremely fresh and flavorful wine.

Michele Satta Bolgheri Rosso 2022

$36.99

94 points- James Suckling | 93 points- Wine Spectator

"A suave customer, this red exudes cherry, black currant, raspberry, mineral and spice aromas and flavors. Silky and harmonious, with the right amount of structure."
-Wine Spectator

MICHELE SATTA

We exalt Nature by seeking its Highest Quality

"... This is the character with which we intend to make wine the continuous search for quality as the expression of the unique and unrepeatable nature of the vineyard and its encounter with the man"

Castello di Montepo Sassoalloro Oro Toscana IGT 2021

$74.99

To celebrate the 30th anniversary of Sassoalloro (1991-2021), the iconic wine of the Castello di Montepò, Sassoalloro Oro was produced. Sassoalloro Oro comes from the area "Aia di Clemente", a vineyard located in a portion of Galestro with good slope and exposition to east and south-east. As per tradition, from plants older than 15 years old. The vineyard is grown on soil with galestro mineral varieties contribute to an optimal development of the plant by giving its fruits unique and scents of the terroir.

Castello di Montepó Morellino of Scansano 2021

$54.99

Sangiovese grosso BBS11: 95% | Cabernet Sauvignon: 5%

Enveloping ethereal notes ~ A bottle that captures the most authentic heart of the Maremma. A red wine with a strong territorial identity, it stands out for its enveloping, ethereal notes of fresh red berries. A preview of the palate experience, it is dry, savory, and well-structured, with mellow, persistent tannins.

Castello di Montepo THE ESTATE In the heart of Maremma

Surrounded by forests, olive groves, and the small hills of Maremma, the ancient manor has been an impregnable fortress defending the feudal borders since medieval times, a mission it still pursues today by protecting the 600 hectares of the estate, including 50 of vineyards.

It's where Jacopo Biondi Santi found the ideal conditions for the vine-terroir interaction to fulfill his ambitious project of enhancing viticulture.
