Top Italian Producers with Mark Cerimele of RARM Imports

Artisanal and terroir-driven — small-production wines that reflect the distinct character of their local vineyards, from the mineral precision of Colli Tortonesi to the alpine-influenced elegance of Valpolicella.

Authentic, indigenous varietals — showcasing native grapes like Timorasso, Nebbiolo, and Corvina with minimal intervention and a strong sense of place.

Elegant yet distinctive expressions — balancing freshness, structure, and complexity, offering everything from lifted aromatics to savory depth and refined textures.

Mark will be telling us about an Italian winemaker visiting Western Reserve Wines on Friday, May 8, 2026*

LA COLOMBERA

La Colombera Timorasso Derthona 2023

$34.99

93 Points— Wine Enthusiast
100% Timarasso grapes from Colli Tortonesi

*Aged entirely in stainless steel with no malo.
Citrus, herbs, and richness. Shows both power and precision.*

Madonna delle Grazie Sagaris Basilicata Rosata 2024 $19.99

100% Aglianico grapes from Mount Vulture's slopes

*Crisp & beautiful.
Fresh, dry palate with vibrant acidity and balance.
Lingering, fruit-driven finish with subtle salinity.*

Boniperti 'Carlin' Nebbiolo 2023

$29.99

91 Points— Antonio Galloni
100% Nebbiolo grapes in Fara, Piemonte

*Minimal intervention with no fining or filtration.
Super clean, yet complex style of Nebbiolo from Alto Piemonte. Notes of rose petal, tart cherry, licorice, and spice.*

Rubinelli Vajol Valpolicella Ripasso Classico Superiore 2019 $29.99

94 Points— Falstaff
50% Corvina | 25% Corvinone | 15% Rondinella | 5% Molinara | 5% Oseleta

*Produced in the traditional "ripasso" method using the same general blend of grapes as their Valpolicella Classico. Rubinelli Vajol creates a level of elegance in their wines that is unmatched in Valpolicella.
Silky, perfumed, and fruit-forward.*

Rubinelli Vajol Amarone della Valpolicella 2017 $79.99

93 Points— Falstaff
40% Corvina | 40% Corvinone | 10% Rondinella | 5% Molinara | 5% Oseleta

This is widely considered to be one of Valpolicella's best representations of Amarone. Beautiful fruit concentration while maintaining a level of freshness rarely found in Amarone.
