Marietta Cellars with Benny from Wine Trends

Discover the bold, terroir-driven wines of Marietta Cellars, from rare old-vine Riesling to estate-grown Zinfandel and structured Cabernet.

This lineup showcases the winery's signature balance of richness, freshness, and value, highlighting both everyday favorites and cellar-worthy selections. A perfect opportunity to explore California wines that consistently overdeliver in both quality and character. Marietta Cellars is a second-generation winery continues to transform belief, hard work, a blessed climate, and extraordinary land into beautiful liquid expressions of family and place. For decades Marietta produced wine by purchasing high quality fruit from local friends and farmers. Owner Scot and team now farm over 400 acres of their own vines.

1. Old Vine Riesling Wirz Vineyard 2021 – $25.99

Varietal

- 100% Riesling

Tasting Profile

Bright and aromatic with lime, green apple, white peach, and jasmine, layered with a distinctive mineral and saline edge. Crisp and dry with vibrant acidity and a long, refreshing finish.

Highlights

- From the historic Wirz Vineyard (planted 1960s)
- Dry, structured Riesling (not sweet)
- A rare California old-vine Riesling

2. Roman Estate Grown Zinfandel 2022 – $27.99

Varietal

- ~95% Zinfandel
- ~5% Petite Sirah

Tasting Profile

Juicy and expressive with blackberry, raspberry, and baking spice, supported by fresh acidity and soft tannins. Medium-bodied with energy and balance.

Highlights

- Estate-grown fruit
- More fresh and vibrant than heavy Zin styles
- Crowd-pleasing and food-friendly

3. Armé 2022 (North Coast Red Blend) – $29.99

Varietal (approximate blend)

- ~75–85% Cabernet Sauvignon
- Petit Verdot, Malbec, Merlot (balance)

Tasting Profile

Structured yet approachable, showing black currant, plum, cocoa, and cedar, with smooth tannins and a polished finish.

Highlights

- Cabernet-driven blend with Bordeaux inspiration
- Balanced between power and drinkability

4. Angeli Zinfandel 2022 – $45.99

Varietal

- ~85–90% Zinfandel
- ~10–15% Petite Sirah

Tasting Profile

Rich and layered with black cherry, plum, cocoa, and spice, supported by structured tannins and depth. More refined and concentrated than typical Zinfandel.

Highlights

- From the Angeli Estate vineyard
- Shows a more elegant, age-worthy side of Zinfandel

5. Game Trail Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2022 – $49.99

Varietal

- 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

Tasting Profile

Deep and complex with cassis, blackberry, graphite, and dark chocolate, framed by firm tannins and a long, structured finish.

Highlights

- Estate-grown in Yorkville Highlands (Mendocino)
- Mountain fruit = intensity + structure
- Built to age or decant and enjoy now
